Titus 2:3-5

---

---

---

Titus 2:3-5

- 3) The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;
- 4) That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,
- 5) To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

“What is a Girl?”

In a 1973 message entitled “You and Your Daughter” Rev. Chuck Swindoll referenced this excerpt from a book by Ms. Dale Evans Rogers.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

Little girls are the nicest things that happen to people. They are born with a little bit of angel shine about them, and though it wears thin sometimes there is always enough to lasso your heart. Even When they are sitting in the mud or crying temperamental tears.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

A little girl can be sweeter and “bad’er” often. Oftener more than anyone else in the world she can jitter around and stomp and make funny noises that frazzle your nerves, yet just when you open your mouth, she stands there demure with that special look in her eyes.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

A girl is innocence playing in the mud.
Beauty standing on its head.
Motherhood dragging a doll by its foot.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

God borrows from many creatures to make a little girl. He uses the song of a bird, the squeal of a pig, the stubbornness of a mule, the antics of a monkey, the spryness of a grasshopper, the curiosity of a cat, the speed of a gazelle, the slyness of a fox, the softness of a kitten, and to top it all off he adds the mysterious mind of a woman.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

Little girls like new shoes, party dresses, small animals, first grade, noise makers, the girl next door, make believe, ice cream, coloring books, make-up, cans of water, going visiting, tea parties, and one boy.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

She doesn't care so much for visitors or boy friends in general, large dogs or hand-me-downs, straight chairs and vegetables, snow suits or staying in her own front yard.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

She’s the loudest when you are thinking, prettiest when she has provoked you, the busiest at bedtime, the quietest when you want to show her off, and the most flirtatious when she absolutely must not get the best of you again.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

Who else can cause you more grief, joy, irritations, satisfaction, embarrassment, and genuine delight than this combination of Eve, Salome, and Florence Nightingale.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

She can mess up your home, your hair, your dignity, then just when your patience is about to crack her sunshine peaks through and you’re lost again.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What is a Girl?”

Yes she is a nerve racking nuisance, noisy, bundle of mischief, but when dreams crumble down and her world is a mess; when it seems you are pretty much a fool after all, she can make you a King or a Queen when she climbs up on your knee and whispers in your ear
“I love you best of all”.
